NATIONAL ALLIANCE

Synopsis: National Alliance membership drive.

Details: The Louisiana chapter of the National Alliance (NA), located at Baton Rouge, intends to hold a state-wide membership drive to begin the weekend of April 1, 2005. [REDACTED] is in contact with sympathizers across the state who are expected to participate. It is anticipated that NA members and sympathizers will simultaneously deliver flyers at various places in Louisiana during the weekend. The method of dissemination will be nighttime drops of flyers in resident's driveways or handing out flyers on street corners. Requests for donations may be made during any daytime activities. Recruitment activities will continue throughout the month of April.

[REDACTED], has already attempted to obtain a permit to solicit donations on street corners in Baton Rouge. Baton Rouge P.D. (BRPD) informed [REDACTED] that this violated a city ordinance, but [REDACTED] stated he would do it anyway. [REDACTED] also contacted the East Baton Rouge Parish Sheriff's Office (EBRSO) to determine what type of response he could expect from police if he violated the ordinance. Both EBRSO and BRPD plan to arrest any NA members who violate the ordinance.

Details: Source reporting indicates that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] It is believed that [REDACTED] may be associated with [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The NV appears to no longer be a viable entity in Louisiana because of a lack of leadership and
